

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals' recognizes area production company with two International Awards

South Bend, Indiana – December 4, 2007 - Area production company PentaVision Communications is a two-time winner in the international Ava Awards 2007 competition.

PentaVision has won a Platinum Award in the category of TV Spots/Campaign for the production of a corporate image campaign for Gibson Insurance Group. Tania Bengtsson, of Gibson Insurance, was the executive producer.

The company was also honored with a Gold Award in the Pro Bono category for “Robinson Community Learning Center”. This intern produced piece was developed by the team of Ryan Liggett, Ball State University; Cary Smith, Ferris State University; Ryan Hostetler, Anderson University; and John Zachman, Erin Russle, Yuichi Uda, and Tulyah Gaines, University of Notre Dame. The project was supervised by PentaVision’s Bob Richthammer and Jon O’Sullivan.

The Platinum Award signifies those entries which are deemed the most outstanding in regards to quality, creativity and resourcefulness while the Gold Award represents those which exceed the high standards of the industry norm.

Of the nearly 1700 entries from the United States and internationally, approximately 14 percent were Platinum Award winners and 14 percent were Gold Award winners.

The Ava Awards recognize outstanding work by professionals involved in the concept, writing, direction, shooting, and editing of audio-visual materials and programs

PentaVision Communications, Inc. is a full service media solutions company based in South Bend, Indiana, providing producer, location production, editing and other media solutions for its broad client base.

Contact:

Ryan Geist, President

PentaVision Communications, Inc.

Phone (574) 272-8365

e-mail: ryan@pentavision.net

www.pentavision.net