Gibson Insurance Group Wins the 2005 Chubb Charity Challenge

On June 27th The Gibson Insurance Group won the Chubb Charity Challenge's regional tournament at The Fort Golf Resort at Fort Harrison State Park and will move on to compete for a $50,000 donation to Boys & Girls Club of St. Joseph County in the national championship in Half Moon Bay, CA.

In September, Gibson Insurance Group will compete against 43 other regional tournament winners from the United States and Canada in the national championship. The team consists of Gregory Downes, President, Gibson Insurance Group; Thomas McGovern, Vice President, Gibson Insurance Group; Michael Miley, Account Executive, Gibson Insurance Group; James Clevenger Jr., Marshall County Attorney, Marshall County. “The Gibson team played a great game and deserve the top honors. However, from Chubb’s perspective, every team and player at this year’s Indianapolis tournament was a winner,” said Allison Meta, Chubb’s Indianapolis branch manager. “Through this collective effort, Chubb, our agents and customers are helping charities in our communities achieve their important missions.”

In this year's Indianapolis tournament, 5 teams raised a total of $12,500 for charity. J.W. Flynn Company finished second, and Gregory & Appel Insurance finished third. Due to a generous donation from Cassady Neeser and Brasseur Insurance, we were able to award money to our remaining four teams to their designated charities.
