Gibson Insurance Group Donates $8,000 to Boys & Girls Club of St. Joseph County

SOUTH BEND, IN, November 21, 2005 – The Gibson Insurance Group presented the Boys & Girls Club of St. Joseph County with an $8,000 donation. The Gibson Insurance Group earned the donation by finishing 25th in the Chubb Charity Challenge, a golf tournament that raised money for more than 300 charities.

On June 27, the Gibson Insurance Group team won the regional Indianapolis Chubb Charity Challenge tournament and moved on to compete against the 43 regional tournament winners from the United States and Canada at the championship in September.

“One of our core values at Gibson Insurance Group is to honor the civic and charitable organizations of the communities we serve,” said Downes. “The Boys and Girls Club of St. Joseph County inspires and enables young people, especially those from disadvantaged circumstances, to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens.”

The Boys and Girls Club of St. Joseph County provides mentoring and gives hope and opportunity to almost 3,000 at-risk youth in St. Joseph County through after-school and summer programs.

“Gibson Insurance Group played really hard and earned a large donation for a worthy charity,” said Allison Meta, Chubb’s Indianapolis branch manager. “Chubb is proud to be able to help Gibson Insurance Group give back to the St. Joseph County community.”

The team consisted of Gregory Downes, President, Gibson Insurance Group; Thomas McGovern, Vice President, Gibson Insurance Group; Michael Miley, Account Executive, Gibson Insurance Group; Terry Cavanaugh, Managing Director and Senior Vice President, Chubb & Son, and Chief Operating Officer of Chubb Surety; and James Clevenger Jr., Marshall County Attorney, Marshall County

This year the Chubb Charity Challenge raised $1,037,000 for charities. Since it began in 2000, the tournament has raised more than $4 million for U.S. and Canadian charities.

The member insurers of the Chubb Group of Insurance Companies form a multi-billion dollar organization providing property and casualty insurance for personal and commercial customers worldwide through 8,000 independent agents and brokers. Chubb's global network includes branches and affiliates in North America, Europe, Latin America, Asia and Australia.
